SPECIAL SPEAKERS:

Christian Fortuna and Craig Dombrowski from Boy Scout Troop 44 presented their Eagle Scout projects to City Council which included building raised garden beds at Suncrest Elementary School and a foot bridge at Mason Dixon park.

CITIZENS:

Britt Klandorf – Purchased townhouse on Frontier St. and has noticed that the workers from the company doing the septic project have been using the available parking spots along the rail trail so that citizens have no where to park when using the trail. Mayor suggested that the city have a discussion with them but ultimately there is no law prohibiting them from parking on public streets. Another suggestion was to have them park in the lot behind Aldi's.

Helen Derrico- Kensington Ave. –Complained that Broadway Ave. has yellow curb marked off 90 feet from University Ave. and her tenants are having problems parking. She says that there is no other street in Star City marked that far back. Her maintenance man has received parking tickets and she wanted to know why. Phillip remarked that he was blocking dumpsters.
